REMUDA

Jerry,
Gee, buddy, it's almost all over. Can you believe we're really graduating? I'm really glad that we got to know each other better this past year. I think you are a wonderful person, and you have been a really great president for our class of '63. I have great hopes for you in the future. Maybe someday you'll make it up to Fort Collins. Best of luck in college and basketball. I hope we can keep in touch and always be friends. Don't play too much golf this summer, OK? And don't keep Stern out too late on your nights off!

Love & luck,
Phyllis

Vol. 4

Our year of richest memories . . .
began in September!

Dedication

The richest years, the seniors sigh,
Have been the three at great South High.
The radiance of the good times and fun,
Are an aurora of memories for everyone.

Now as we leave this hallowed hall,
A blaze of hope is in us all.
That each may gain his own success,
And live his life in happiness.

Paula Curran
Senior

Jerry, I know that I get on your nerves and I can't blame you. And I can't blame you. Honest. I think you're a real cool guy. While S.B. president this school year. I think that South's the best school I've ever had. Good luck in the future. Hope we are friends always. Best of luck in everything you do now and in the future. Hope to see you again some day. Sorry. Graham

Dear Jerry
I can never tell how much I enjoyed being at South High this year, and in Council. Thank you for everything. I wish the very best of luck and happiness. I'll always remember.
Hale Serman

Foreword

The diamonds which appear on the cover of the 1963 "REMUDA", and which are pictured throughout the book, symbolize the rich and radiant memories we have of our life at South. South High has grown in years, tradition and population; we now have a student body of 1200 with a faculty of 50.

The word "Remuda" is the Spanish word meaning a band of horses or "Colts" usually taken along on a cattle drive, thus it was chosen as the name for our annual.

JERRY, First I'd like to say that I think that you were a great Student Body President. May you always be happy. Personality wise your tops. With these qualities you should be a great success in life all never forget the blast we had in Spanish II. Good Luck in all you do. Floyd '63"

Principal
Mr. David Wilkerson

"It is our primary goal to do all in our power to bring about the greatest possible development of each individual student in terms of the talents and abilities which he possesses. This is, indeed, a difficult task which may never be completely realized, but it is my hope that every Colt can look back on his years at South with fond memories of important achievements and significant feelings of betterment as a result of his educational experiences within these beloved walls."

Assistant Principal
Mr. Gordon Sullivan

"Observing your everyday deeds during your tenure at South constantly has been of interest to me; equally so are your successes, or failures, after your stay with us is ended. While you are away, I commission each of you 'A South High Representative'!"

Valedictorian

Marcia Stjernholm

"Let us profit from our memories of our wonderful high school days and realize with a sense of gratitude the efforts put forth by our community, parents, and teachers to educate us in the best manner possible. In the years to come may each of us make use of our individual talents to the fullest extent, for the responsibility of the future of this great country lies on our shoulders."

Salutatorian

"It is our fortune to live in such a wonderful community. Our parents and teachers have given us the knowledge and understanding to face the world and its problems, but now it is up to us to do our best with what we have been given. Jerry,

It's been a long time and a lot of things have happened since we first met. You've accomplished a lot and I know you will succeed very much in the future. You're headed the school in the very best way and the students of South owe you a lot. As you climb the ladder to success remember all the fun and friends you had at South. Remember the Y.M.C.A., Council and all the just plain "messing around we've done. Stay the sweet, wonderful person you are and life will be good to you. God bless you cause you're the ~~Best~~

My Darling Jerry,

It's so hard for me to face the fact that in three months we won't be able to be together anymore. We have grown so close to each other this past year, and you have done a million wonderful things for me that I'll never forget. I honestly don't know whether I'll be able to make it without you, Jer; for I have become so dependent on you and your presence. Your smile has made each day a beautiful one for me. For the last seven I have dreamed of my senior year. I wanted it to be the best year of my schooling and I expected a lot from it. I want you to know that it has been more than I had ever dreamed possible and it has all been because of you. I have a thousand wonderful memories to cherish the rest of my life and you are the reason for them. For this I want to say "thank you" from the bottom of my heart. I know I make you awfully mad at times, but we always come through our quarrels with a stronger love than ever. If I have given you only a fraction of the happiness you have given me, I will be satisfied. We have had one of the best years anyone in this world has ever had I'm sure. It's been the most tremendous year of my entire life, and that's because I've belonged to the most tremendous boy in the world! I'm so very, very proud of you, darling! You are everything that I could ever ask for in a boy. You are the world to me! It's going to be the hardest thing I'll ever have to do saying goodbye to you, but it's NOT going to be a lasting goodbye Jer. I promise you I know things will work out out cause we'll make them. I need you more than you'll ever know! I thank God that I have had the chance to have such a wonderful relationship with a perfect boy like you. No matter what the future brings, Jer, I will never forget the love we have shared and the many, many tremendous hours we have spent together! You are the most wonderful boy in the world and I pray that your life will always be filled with many blessings. Be sure you behave yourself. God bless you, my darling, as he has blessed me by giving me you. I love you with all of my heart.

Love forever,
Marcia
